

Sun, Sand, and a Side of Mountains: IndiGo announces direct flight to Fujairah

-Daily direct flights from Mumbai and Kannur from May 15, 2025

National, April 10, 2025: IndiGo, India's preferred airline, is strengthening its global presence, expanding its international network from India and as part of its strategic growth plan, the airline has announced Fujairah as the fifth destination in UAE. Fujairah, IndiGo's 41st international destination on its network, further solidifies its presence in the Middle East.

The new daily flights from Mumbai and Kannur to Fujairah, with dedicated bus services to & from Dubai and Sharjah, complementing existing routes to Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Sharjah, and Ras Al Khaimah, will unlock new travel options for tourism and trade, catering to both leisure and business travelers.

With an extensive domestic network spanning over 90 destinations in India, the airline now offers seamless connections to 132 destinations worldwide. The airline's expanded footprint in the UAE will enhance regional connectivity, reinforcing its commitment to providing unparalleled travel experiences. The strategically planned flight timings with carefully coordinated bus arrival and departure times offer travelers a hassle-free journey, discovering Dubai's iconic landmarks, Sharjah's cultural attractions, or experiencing the best of the UAE.

Mr. Vinay Malhotra, Head of Global Sales at IndiGo, said, "We are pleased to announce the launch of daily direct flights from Mumbai and Kannur to Fujairah, a hidden gem in the UAE that's rich in natural beauty and economic potential. As our 41st international destination and fifth in the UAE (we already fly to Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Ras Al Khaimah & Sharjah), Fujairah offers a unique blend of mountainous landscapes and a thriving coastline on the Gulf of Oman. With its growing importance in trade, logistics, and tourism, we're confident that these new flights will further enhance regional connectivity. At IndiGo, we're committed to providing convenient, affordable, and seamless travel experiences that bring people and businesses closer together."

Fujairah, located along the eastern coast of the UAE, is renowned for its pristine beaches, majestic mountain landscapes, and rich cultural heritage, offering a unique combination of leisure and adventure. Key attractions include the historic Fujairah Fort, the Al-Bidyah Mosque, and the UNESCO-recognized Wadi Wurayah National Park. The emirate also enjoys year-round favorable weather and is a hub for water-based activities such as snorkeling, scuba diving, and deep-sea fishing. Strategically positioned along the Gulf of Oman, Fujairah plays a critical role in global trade and logistics, hosting one of the world's largest oil storage facilities and serving as a key port that bypasses the Strait of Hormuz.

Mumbai, formerly known as Bombay, is the financial capital of India and one of the most populous cities in the world. Located on the west coast of India, along the Arabian Sea, Mumbai is the heart of the Bollywood film industry and a hub for commerce, fashion, and entertainment. The city's skyline is a mix of colonial-era buildings, modern skyscrapers, and bustling streets that reflect its dynamic and diverse culture. As the economic powerhouse of the country, Mumbai attracts millions of migrants seeking opportunities, which contributes to its vibrant and cosmopolitan atmosphere.

Kannur, situated in the northern region of Kerala, India, is a city renowned for its rich cultural heritage, historical significance, and natural beauty. Often referred to as the 'Land of Looms and Lores,' Kannur has a longstanding tradition of handloom weaving and is celebrated for Theyyam, an ancient ritualistic art form unique to the region. The city is home to notable landmarks such as St. Angelo Fort, a 16th-century Portuguese fort, and Muzhappilangad Beach, India's only drive-in beach, which attracts visitors from across the country. With the establishment of Kannur International Airport, the city has emerged as a key hub for connectivity, fostering trade, tourism, and economic growth in northern Kerala. Combining cultural richness with modern infrastructure, Kannur offers immense potential for both leisure and business opportunities.

Customers who wish to plan their travel can book tickets via our official website www.goIndiGo.in. The introduction of these flights will further bolster the airline's international connectivity.
